2. What are the five "stones" that you use to defeat your giants?
3. Is it easier for you to relate to David, the courageous warrior for God, or David, the guy who was tempted and sinned? What does it take to go from "hero" to "zero"?
4. Do you feel like God has allowed bad things to happen in your life (e.g., allowed relationships to be divided), and thus helped you to rely more on him? Give an example.

THINKING IT THROUGH

Do you think most people want fame, power, and fortune for their own glory or for God's? What dictates your actions and reactions most days, your wants and desires or God's? Whose will are you living for? Is it "Thy will be done," or, "My will be done"?
